ds, professor of church history in the Auburn Theological Seminary.

BATH

HER DEATH OCCURS IN WILLIAMSPORT

Mrs. Georgianna Merriman Is Ill Only Few Days—Elmira Rector Will Be Heard at Lenten Service.

(Special to The Star-Gazette.)

Bath, Feb. 8.—Following a short illness occurred the death in Williamsport, Pa., Sunday night of Mrs. Georgianna Merriman. Mrs. Merriman was the widow of the late Cyrus Merriman. Her maiden name was Crane, and she was born and passed much of her life in Bradford, this county. She and her family were prominently known. She leaves a son Egbert Merriman in Wheeling, W. Va., with a daughter Mrs. Quigley of Bellefonte, Pa.

The remains will be taken to Bradford, where the funeral will be conducted on Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. W. W. Jennings, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church of this village. Mrs. Merriman was sixty-two years old.

LENTEN SERVICES.

Bath, Feb. 8.—During the Lenten Fri-